For the purpose of charging fees, graduate certificates, graduate diplomas and masters courses are considered to be discrete courses, courses. Accordingly, students who upgrade from a graduate certificate to a graduate diploma to a masters course will be charged at the in which they commence each course (see note 3, below, for further information).

A 'closed' status indicates that a course is not open for new admissions in 2010.

The University of Canberra sets its fees according to an annual rate method. The annual rate is the fee that applies to standard full-time

The final fee charged is based on the proportion of 24 credit points in which a student enrolls. For example, if a student only enrolls in 3 be charged $3/24 = 0.125 \times$ annual rate. In 2006 the University changed its fee charging method. The annual rate that applies in the year a until the student completes the degree (as long as the student completes in standard part-time enrolment duration). Students who charged the 2005 annual rate. The only exception to this rule is postgraduate research students. If a postgraduate research student is fee rate approved each year will apply to the student. (i.e. the fees are not fixed and may vary from year to year).

The 2006 annual rate will apply to all students who commence study in a degree in 2006. The 2006 rate will apply until the student student completes in standard part-time enrolment duration).
